NEWS SUMMARY.

BY TELEGRAPH.

Edward Wagner, government inspector of steamboat boilers at St. Louis, committed suicide yesterday morning by shooting himself in the head. No cause assigned for the act.

The Wells Seminary for young ladies, at Aurora, New York, was destroyed Thursday night, entailing a loss of $50,000. It was the free gift of Henry Wells, the expressman, to the educational interests of the country.

Advices from Fort Reno say that on the 14th, while some soldiers were hunting stray cattle, they came upon a few hostile Indians and a skirmish ensued. The Indians retreated after a short distance and were reinforced. Major Clark with thirty cavalry came up with a howitzer and fired on the Indians, who scattered and fled back. Again being reinforced, they made a stand and drove the soldiers back, killing one and wounding one.

The Herald publishes a letter from General Hancock to General Sheridan, dated July 6th, stating that he was not a candidate for Vice President, embarrassed not accepting the nomination for that office.

Sheriff Van Blair, of Luzerne county, Pennsylvania, has issued his proclamation warning the citizens that in case of a refusal to obey the writs he will call on the Governor for military aid.

Officer John Sandlick, of the Twenty-first precinct, was shot and instantly killed on the corner of First avenue and Thirty-second street, New York, Thursday night, by one John Reed, who was arrested. No cause for the murder is known. Reed is said to be insane.

SATURDAY, JULY 25, 1868.

The Commercial is the largest daily paper in the State, and, from forty-one months' reading, has any other paper in Pittsburgh. It is the only Pittsburgh paper that uses the telegraph liberally, gives full market reports, and all the news of the day.

As proof of the ultimate ground on the market reports of the Commercial, we will state that they are regularly copied by the New York Journal of Commerce, Boston Post, and other leading journals of the country. The Commercial's telegraphic and commercial reports are therefore superior to that of any other Pittsburgh daily, having, from our location, nearly an hour's start of any other Pittsburgh paper in receiving news, while our Iron Factory, Oil Refinery, or leading manufactory of any kind that is not a subscriber to the Commercial, principally, cannot be reported, are the only full and reliable guide of the Pittsburgh markets.

We learn from the St. Louis Republican of the first of August, General Cox, Surrogate will commence speaking in the State of Indiana, where he will labor for three weeks. He will then come to Pennsylvania and speak till about a month before the Presidential election.

Conductors of Pennsylvania and Western railroad interests in the Baltimore and Potomac Railroad, have consummated arrangements for pushing it forward—$1,000,000 having been provided. September of next year is fixed for its completion. It is confidently expected that Mr. Garrett will in the meantime put the Washington and Point of Rocks Road through. This in connection with the Connellsville Road—the construction of which is the shortest time practicable is absolutely certain—will give Pittsburgh a direct connection with the Capital as well as Baltimore.

The remark which we quoted the other day, coming from one who knows well the Blair family, to the effect that it would be just like them to set on foot a plot, in case of the election of the Democratic ticket—which will not happen—to get Seymour into a Lunatic Asylum and Frank Blair into the White House, is supported by the following from the Frederick, (Md.,) Republican, as follows:

> We commend the interests of the Democracy to the careful consideration of the National Committee, and to the prayerful study of the Democratic candidates. Let them not be deceived by the apparent success of the Democracy in the October elections. Let them not be misled by the apparent unanimity of the party. Let them not be deceived by the apparent enthusiasm of the party

GENERAL GRANT.

His Visit to his Birthplace—Cordial Reception from His old Friends and Neighbors.

From a letter in the Washington Chronicle, descriptive of Gen. Grant's trip to the West we quote as follows:

The drummer lulled at Point Pleasant, the birthplace of Gen. Grant, a quiet little country village in Ohio, not far from Cincinnati, which will probably never arrive to a greater distinction than it has already attained, and if it doesn't increase rapidly in population, can answer to more ambitious neighbors at the fire and the fire in the fabric, ensue and live. Here the General was given time to find the house in which he was born, and which he had never seen to remember all then. This property had long since passed out of the ownership of Mr. Grant, who removed to Georgetown, Brown County, Ohio, when he son, Ulysses, was a year old. The boy carried up from here to Ripley, Ohio, where the coming of Gen. Grant had been anticipated unexpectedly, and preparations made to give him a rousing reception. It was night when he arrived. Rockets were flying, cannon firing, table singing, music playing and the whole town (some five or six thousand) appeared to be on the river bank shouting vociferously. A committee of gentlemen came aboard, and Gen. Murphy delivered an address of welcome. Gen. Grant replied that he was taking a little trip to visit the old place where

A Stubborn Complaint.

It is a common complaint with sufferers from Chills and Fever, that the remedies they use do not afford them permanent relief. But it is a grave error for any such to think that they are incurable. There is a medicine which will break up this distressing disease and drive it out of their systems forever. Mishler's Herb Bitters is a specific for this disorder, and while it is a powerful and effectual (which is not the case with quinine) it also acts gently upon the nervous organization of the system, and is very pleasant to the taste. It is a nervine and specific for all nervous diseases. It contains nothing nauseating, and its effects upon the digestive and remittent fevers is speedily seen in the complete and absolute restoration to vigorous health of the patient. Mishler's Herb Bitters is a splendid tonic and alterative, and is in great demand in all malarious regions and fever and ague districts. Sold by all druggists and dealers. Depot for B. Hartman & Co., Proprietors, Lancaster, Pa.

Disaster Follows Neglect.

Whoever feels the premonitory symptoms of sickness should exert himself to that it adds the agony of self-reproach to the pangs of disease to remember that they might have been prevented.

Languor, debility and low spirits are often the precursors of terrible disorders. They indicate an immediate necessity for a tonic, and the best tonic is HOSTETTER'S CELEBRATED STOMACH BITTERS.

Sick headache, pain in the right side, and yellowness of the whites of the eyes are unmistakable symptoms of approaching bilious attacks, and, in order to prevent them in all their virulence during the prevalence of the season, the use of this genial alterative should be commenced. Dyspepsia, constipation, and all stomachic disorders, are conquered by this potent vegetable corrective. Fever and ague, rheumatism, kidney complaint, debility, and dysentery, are likewise subdued by it. Appetite, sleep, and nervous energy return to those who use it, and the whole physical system is invigorated by its tonic influence. Sold by druggists and dealers generally.
